

OIG/GSA SCREENINGS

CMS, DHCS, and affiliated health plans require that all individuals and entities involved in the administration or delivery of benefits of government-funded healthcare programs do not appear on the DHHS Office of the Inspector General (OIG) or General Services Administration (GSA)* exclusion lists. The IPA may at any point monitor or audit our contracted entities to ensure compliance with screening requirements.

- All employees and contractors, including entities, must be screened.
- Screenings must be conducted prior to hire/contracting and monthly thereafter.
- Excluded individuals or entities must be removed immediately from IPA business.
- Evidence of all screenings must be saved for a minimum of ten (10) years.

*General Services Administration (GSA) administers the System for Award Management (SAM).
